Hanging Installation

"Letters of Hope" by Nick Dodge & Michael Taft with the Fossy Posse

Much like Luke's Gospel, dedicated to Theophilus, comes as a message of hope about Jesus' coming into the world, these hanging letters are meant to remind us of different words of hope we have heard from God and our loved ones this Advent Season. Most of these letters are simply white but if you look closely some of them are misted with gold paint, reminding us of the divine words that come through ordinary letters.

Call to Worship

from Psalm 113

Leader

Boast in the LORD.
Servants of Christ Jesus, boast in all he has done!
Boast of who he is.

All

Let the name of the LORD be honored,
both now and forevermore.
From the rising of the sun to the place where it sets,
Let everyone boast in what Jesus has done.

Leader

The LORD is exalted over all the nations, his glory above the heavens.
Who is like the LORD our God,
the One who sits enthroned on high,
Who humbles himself to give attention to the heavens and the earth?

All

He helps the poor up from the dusty ground, making them to stand.
He exalts beggars, out of the dung pile to be seated among the prosperous, with the generous of his people.

Leader

Those with no hope,
he gives a home, to live secure, with plenty;
joyful and carefree.

All

Let everyone everywhere boast in the LORD.

Opening Hymn

“Let the Whole Creation Cry”

All

Let the whole creation cry: Alleluia!
Glory to the Lord on high! Alleluia!
Heav’n and earth, awake and sing: Alleluia!
Jesus Christ is Lord and King!
Praise him, all ye hosts above, ever bright and fair in love,
Sun and moon, lift up your voice, night and stars in God rejoice,
God rejoice, Alleluia! Alleluia!

Warriors fighting for the Lord, Alleluia!
Prophets burning with his Word, Alleluia!
Those to whom the arts belong, Alleluia!
Add their voices to the song.
Men and women, young and old, raise the anthem manifold,
And let children’s joyful hearts, in this worship shout their parts,
Shout their parts, Alleluia! Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Let the whole creation cry: Alleluia!
Glory to the Lord on high! Alleluia!
Heav’n and earth, awake and sing: Alleluia!
Jesus Christ is Lord and King!
From the earth to heavens shore, let the mighty chorus roar,
“Holy, holy, holy One; glory be to God alone,
God alone!” Alleluia! Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Prayer of Adoration

Prayer of Confession

from Psalm 74:16-17; Acts 1-2; Psalm 19:12

Leader Our Father establishes our times, turning winter to summer.
We look forward to the leisure of summer,
but we confess that we misuse it.

All We revel in the pleasures of food, friends, and time away,
but do not recognize you in these good things and do not give you thanks or enjoy them in your presence.

Leader We spend the freedom of summer on ourselves,
and do not look to use it to serve others.

All We are easily impatient and irritable.
We see those closest to us as objects—
Either to get what we want,
Or in the way of what we want;
We try to play god to get our own way.

Leader Father and Son, you turned the season redemptively to pour out your Spirit on your people.

All We resist the Spirit's work on us:
We cover our ears from hearing the Scripture he has spoken;
We pull back our hands from caring for those who hurt;
We close our mouths from speaking about Jesus;
We stop our feet from going on mission to all the peoples;
We do not let you, Spirit, point us body and soul to Christ.

Leader How can I know all the sins lurking in me?
Lord, you know everyone's heart.

All Search us by your Spirit.
Make us so safe in the gospel
that we can confess whatever you uncover in us.

Assurance of Pardon in the Gospel

from Revelation 4-5; Ephesians 1:10; Acts 3:21; 2:17, 26-28

Leader Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll—to reveal and execute the Father's purposes for all of creation?

All Jesus is worthy! Only the Lamb whose blood purchased persons from every tribe and language and people and nation, now seated at the center of God's divine throne,
can bring about his Father's good, holy, beautiful plan.

Leader Your plan is to renew and restore all things under Jesus Christ.
So, pour out your Holy Spirit power on us from heaven!

All Jesus, you have ascended and now reign over heaven and earth, moving the great plan of redemption closer,
presiding over these last days of your favor, even guiding the seasons of our lives and the details of our days.

Leader Make my heart glad, my tongue rejoice, give rest to my body.

All For you have raised Christ from the dead,
so fill us with joy in your presence by your Spirit.

Song in the Gospel

"You Have Redeemed My Soul"

All

You have redeemed my soul from the pit of emptiness,
You have redeemed my soul from death.
You have redeemed my soul from the pit of emptiness,
You have redeemed my soul from death.

I was a hungry child,
A dried up river.
I was a burned out forest,
And no one could do anything for me.

But you put food in my body, water in my dry bed,
And to my blackened branches,
You brought the spring time green of a new life.
And nothing is impossible for you.

You have redeemed my soul from the pit of emptiness,
You have redeemed my soul from death.
You have redeemed my soul from the pit of emptiness,
You have redeemed my soul from death.

Don Chaffer, 1999

Song in the Gospel

"We Need to Hear Your Word (Psalm 119:33-40)"

All

Train our hearts to love what you command.
We let go of our perception as you lead us by the hand.
Every foreign step we trust you as we follow further on,
As you give us your desire, we obey with all we are.

Oh we need to hear your word, Oh we need to hear your word,
Please don't let your branches wither or your children die for thirst,
Oh we need to hear your word.

Turn us back, we try to fill ourselves.
Show the emptiness fulfillment is outside your perfect will,
O how easily like sheep deceived without their shepherds voice.
Make alive in us your scripture, melody against the noise.

Oh we need to hear your word, Oh we need to hear your word,
Please don't let your branches wither or your children die for thirst,
Oh we need to hear your word.

Father, make our souls to hear you,
Spirit, by your power, break through,
Jesus, live in us and make true all you've said.

Oh we need to hear your word, Oh we need to hear your word,
Please don't let your branches wither or your children die for thirst,
Oh we need to hear your word.

Nathan Partain, 2020

Song in the Gospel

"Give Me Jesus"

All

In the morning when I rise,
In the morning when I rise,
In the morning when I rise, give me Jesus.

When I'm all alone,
When I'm all alone,
When I'm all alone, give me Jesus.

When I've been betrayed,
When I've been betrayed,
When I've been betrayed, give me Jesus.

Give me Jesus, give me Jesus
You can have all this world,
But give me Jesus.

When all I have is pain,
When all I have is pain,
When all I have is pain, give me Jesus.

When I cannot pray,
When I cannot pray,
When I cannot pray, give me Jesus.

Give me Jesus, give me Jesus
You can have all this world,
But give me Jesus.

Giving for the Middle School Camp Trip

We are excited that twice as many students signed up for our trip as we intended. We are eager to see how God will work this week, but this does mean we need to raise an additional $6,650 for our Middle School Camp Trip. These additional funds will help with the following:

1. More chaperones needed. With so many students going, we need more leaders in order to have the right adults to students ratio, and we want to cover their costs.
2. Higher transportation costs. With so many students going, we feel that the best and safest route is to take a charter bus, rather than several vans.
3. Increasing our scholarship needs. With so many students going, our scholarship needs for Middle School have also doubled.

We are thrilled to have so many students who want to participate. We are inviting the congregation to help us in making up this difference in financial need. If you are willing and able, you can use the QR code to donate to our bus and scholarship fund. Please reach out to Mary Paxton or Nicholas with any questions. Lastly, please join us in prayer for our trip this week!

Vows of Membership

Membership Vows

1. Do you acknowledge yourself to be a sinner in the sight of God, justly deserving his displeasure and without hope save in his sovereign mercy?
2. Do you believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as the Son of God and Savior of sinners, and do you receive and rest upon him alone for salvation as he is offered in the gospel?
3. Do you now resolve and promise, in humble reliance upon the grace of the Holy Spirit, that you will endeavor to live as becomes the followers of Christ?
4. Do you promise to support the church in its worship and work to the best of your ability?
5. Do you submit yourself to the government and discipline of the church and promise to study its purity and peace?

Congregation's Vows

Leader

Our God made a covenant with Abraham, the father of all who believe, saying, "I will establish my covenant as an everlasting covenant between me and you and your descendants after you for the generations to come, to be your God."

All

Peter preached the gospel to the church saying,
"The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call."

Leader

Do you, the members of this congregation, receive these brothers and sisters into this church as one whom God has called his own according to the covenant? And do you now promise to surround them with Christian love, to pray for them, and to set an example of genuine faith and virtue?

All

We do, for whoever welcomes this child of God in Christ's name, welcomes Christ.
And whoever welcomes Christ, welcomes the one who sent him.

New Member Spotlight

Membership makes real and practical how we are connected to Jesus by being connected to each other. We are happy to have these people with us, sharing in the work of God's mission for Redeemer and this city. Get to know a little bit about those vowing membership this month.

Reid & Tricia Bonner (Children: Adalynne and Charissa)

The Bonner family has been at Redeemer for the past three years. During that time, they have grown closer to Jesus through the liturgy of the service, rhythms of the church calendar, and the community of Redeemer, specifically in the women's ministry, creatives group, and serving with the worship arts team. In their free time, you can find the Bonners spending time outdoors, teaching their children about God and his creation.

Greg & Diane Borgard

Greg and Diane have been at Redeemer since July 2022. While at Redeemer, Greg has learned to lean more strongly on God's character, goodness, and faithfulness in being present with his people. Diane has grown to trust Jesus more through a renewed faith in the fundamental goodness of God. Diane loves hearing stories, especially of how God is at work in someone's life. Greg is a big St. Louis Cardinals fan and would love to talk baseball with you.

Joseph Chow

Joseph has been at Redeemer for the past four years. During that time, he has appreciated growing a deeper understanding of how the gospel impacts all areas of his life. In his free time, Joseph loves basketball.

Willard & Jenna Devaul (Children: Henry and Evelyn)

The Devaul family has been at Redeemer for the past three-and-a-half years. They have appreciated feeling welcome in the midst of their brokenness. During their time at Redeemer, they have grown in feeling safe coming to Jesus and this community in vulnerable, difficult moments and season. Jenna especially is passionate about Indy and celebrating the cool things it has to offer.

Daniel & Julie Dorsett

The Dorsetts have been at Redeemer for just over a year. Julie is passionate about life long learning, and Daniel is passionate about music. They appreciate the conversations they have week in and week out at community group, and the weekly confessions have given them opportunities to think about sin and grace in new ways.

John & Camille Dye

John and Camille have been at Redeemer for the past three-and-a-half year. Camille has especially enjoyed the women's Bible study as a place to connect with others and to learn about God's word.

Kathy Forbes

Kathy has been at Redeemer for two years. She has appreciated opening her heart up to community, which has helped her grow closer to Jesus. Kathy is passionate about storytelling, telling stories herself and hearing the stories of other people's lives.

Dan & Stephany Guiles (Son: Peter)

The Guiles were first at Redeemer from 2014-2016. They moved away, and they have been back at Redeemer since moving back to Indy in 2020. Dan and Stephanie are both physicians and have spent a lot of time in East Africa (they lived in Uganda and in Kenya). They are passionate about showing God's love through medical care to the poor. They appreciate they are reminded each Sunday of who they are as sinful people who are deeply loved by a merciful and loving savior.

New Member Spotlight

Membership makes real and practical how we are connected to Jesus by being connected to each other. We are happy to have these people with us, sharing in the work of God's mission for Redeemer and this city. Get to know a little bit about those vowing membership this month.

Janeen Jensen

Janeen has been at Redeemer since the summer of 2022. She has loved being part of a women's Bible study. When asked what she is passionate about, Janeen said, "So many things that I used to really care about have been stripped away, what I am deeply passionate about now is walking with Jesus daily & knowing him."

Lynn & Sally Johnson

The Johnsons have been at Redeemer for five years. They are both passionate about reading, and they have appreciated the ways Redeemer has helped them create relationships within community.

Stephen and Carice Kirk

The Kirks have been at Redeemer since the fall of 2022. They have loved being surrounded by people who want to grow their relationship with God. Growing those relationships in community has helped them see God at work through the lives of others. Stephen loves teaching middle school, and Carice is passionate about a bargain. She always knows where the deals are.

Anna Kluemke

Anna has been at Redeemer for about two years. Anna says of Redeemer, "When I first moved to Indy in 2020, things felt chaotic and overwhelming to say the least. My time at Redeemer has been such a significant reminder of how community encourages and spurs one another on in the midst of the difficult times." She is passionate about people knowing the love of Jesus. She also loves cats, Taylor Swift songs, and coffee.

Kevin Lema

Kevin has been at Redeemer for nearly two years. He loves helping others in pursuing their career goals. In his time at Redeemer, Kevin has grown in seeing the value of building meaningful Christ-centered relationships through community, the value of serving, and his need for desperate dependence on Jesus.

Brenna McDonald (Children: Caleb, Owen, and Russell)

Brenna has been at Redeemer for the past two years. When reflecting on her time at Redeemer, Brenna says, "I recall this community's thoughtful expressions of faith and joy throughout my week and am strengthened. These acts of worship have encouraged me toward hope in Jesus through the long, often difficult days of pregnancy and life with a newborn."

Trisha McHugh

Trisha has been at Redeemer for the past six months. She is passionate about justice and especially about ending sex trafficking. She has grown in her connectedness to Jesus by seeing justice happen within Indianapolis because of Redeemer's presence.

Emily & Jeremy Pilkington (Children: Gideon, Eva, Zeke, and Grady)

The Pilkingtons have been at Redeemer for two years. They are passionate about helping others experience meaningful relationships in community through their family, home, and dinner table. In reflecting on their time at Redeemer, the Pilkingtons say, "Moving to a new city after living and worshipping in the same place for over 15 years is hard. We've been thankful for our community group and friendships with others at Redeemer. We've experienced Jesus' love and care for us through his people in a healing way."

Scripture Reading

Acts 2:1-13

Reader

¹ When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. ² Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³ They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. ⁴ All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

⁵ Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. ⁶ When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard their own language being spoken. ⁷ Utterly amazed, they asked: “Aren’t all these who are speaking Galileans?” ⁸ Then how is it that each of us hears them in our native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome ¹¹ (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!” ¹² Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, “What does this mean?”

¹³ Some, however, made fun of them and said, “They have had too much wine.”

Call to Communion

Guidelines for the Reception of Communion

Redeemer welcomes to Communion all Christians who are willing to forsake their sin and trust in Jesus Christ for salvation and who are members of congregations which proclaim the gospel. We will be coming forward for the distribution of Communion. Please use the hand sanitizer. You will receive the bread into your hands and take a cup from the tray. Clear cups (located in the interior rings) contain grape juice. Red cups (exterior ring of tray) contain wine. Wait to eat the bread and drink the wine until we all do so together, once we are back in our seats. Children who have been interviewed by the elders are able to share in Communion.

Communion is a time of connection with the Lord Jesus and with each other. Feel free to sing with the band during Communion. The ministry of prayer is also a way we live together as a community of believers and seekers. Please take the time to pray on your own, or with someone else in the pews.

Prayer

If you would like personal prayer during this time you can meet with today's prayer leaders Marshall & Terry Overley located in the back.

Prayer for Guidance to Truth

God, I don't know how I feel about what I have heard today but I want to trust that you are good, that you are loving, and that you are just. I want to know if you are the true God. If you are there, would you guide my soul to the truest truth. I don't want to be tricked or believe a lie. I don't want to believe in something just to make me feel better. Please God, lead me to the truth.

Prayer of Belief and Repentance

Jesus, I believe that you are who you say you are: the Son of God and the savior of broken people like me. I need forgiveness. I need to be made new and to start over again. I now turn away from all I have been doing. I turn away from my self-centered life. I turn my whole heart toward you. I believe that when you were crucified, you took all of my evil and somehow you gave me all of your beauty. I invite your Holy Spirit to live in me. I do not want to live for myself any more. I want you to lead my life. I want to know you and to receive your love for me. Please teach me and protect me and guide me. I am yours. I ask these things in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Prayer of Doubt and Faith

God, I don't really believe all of this, but there is a part of my heart that knows there is truth and goodness here. I am confused by the fact that there are so many things that I don't understand or that make me angry about you. There are also so many things that fill my heart with hope and many things that draw me to you, and I want to put my trust in you. God, you say I can come to you and ask for anything, so if you are real, please give me the faith I need to believe. Give me the desire to continue to seek after you. Keep my heart from self-deception. Protect me from any evil misleading or binding spirits. Calm my fears. Soften my cynicism. Be patient with me, and if you are God, please don't let me go, but instead let me know that you are real. I have a little faith, help me in my doubt.

Song of Celebration

"I Am Trusting Thee"

All

I am trusting thee, thee, Lord Jesus,
Trusting only thee;
Trusting thee for full, full salvation,
Great and free, great and free,
Trusting only thee.

I am trusting thee, thee for cleansing
In the crimson flood;
Trusting thee to make, make me holy

By thy blood, by thy blood,
Trusting only thee.
I am trusting thee, thee to guide me;
Thou alone shall lead;
Thou provide and tend every day and hour
All I need, all I need,
Trusting only thee.

I am trusting thee, thee, Lord Jesus,
Never let me fall;
I am trusting thee, thee forever
And for all, and for all,
Trusting only thee.

words Frances R. Havergal, 1874; music Nathan Partain, 2003

Doxology

All

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heav'nly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
Amen.

SUMMER SOCIAL HOUR

We invite you to join us for a Summer Social Hour, taking the place of Sunday classes. Grab a cup of coffee, yummy treat, and sit and chat for a bit. If you attend the 8:30 am service, plan to stay after the service! If you attend the 11:00 am service, plan to come early! It will be a great time to connect with old and new friends.

Please note that our nursery will close after the first service and will open back up before the second service at 10:45 am.

Closing Hymn

“Abide in Me”

All

Abide in me, O Lord, and I in thee,
From this good hour, O leave me nevermore;
Then shall the discord cease, the wound be healed,
The lifelong bleeding of the soul be o’er.
Abide in me, o’ershadow by thy love
Each half-formed purpose and dark thought of sin;
Quench, ere it rise, each selfish, low desire,
And keep my soul, as thine, calm and divine.

We raise our voices to the Father. He hears our prayers through his Son.
We are enabled by his Spirit. Let your name be hallowed, let your kingdom come.

As some rare perfume in a vase of clay,
Pervades it with a fragrance not its own,
So, when thou dwellest in a mortal soul,
All heav’n’s own sweetness seems around it thrown.
Abide in me; there have been moments blest
When I have heard thy voice and felt thy pow’r;
Then evil lost its grasp, and passion, hushed,
Owned the divine enchantment of the hour.

We raise our voices to the Father. He hears our prayers through his Son.
We are enabled by his Spirit. Let your name be hallowed, let your kingdom come.

These were but seasons beautiful and rare;
Abide in me, and they shall ever be;
Fulfill at once thy precept and my prayer:
Come and abide in me and I in thee.

We raise our voices to the Father. He hears our prayers through his Son.
We are enabled by his Spirit. Let your name be hallowed, let your kingdom...

We raise our voices to the Father. He hears our prayers through his Son.
We are enabled by his Spirit. Let your name be hallowed, let your kingdom come.

Membership at Redeemer

Membership is meaningful in multiple ways. First, we believe that as Christians, it is a part of our calling to be active and engaged in the Church. When you become a member, you take public vows to confirm your faith in Christ and commit to his Church. These vows submit members to the leadership and discipline of the church. We submit ourselves to accountability just like in marriage, friendship, citizenship, and any other relationship or institution that we enter into.

Membership also allows you certain benefits. Members in good standing are able to vote on church matters. They elect elders, call pastors, and have a say in other church business.

To become a member at Redeemer you must take our Discovering Redeemer class and meet with an elder for an interview. You will take membership vows privately and then publicly before the church. To begin this process, email info@redeemindy.org.
